The Reported Destruction of Property at the Court House.

To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette: My attention has been called to the statements contained in your i sue of yesterday and the Weshington Post of to-day, in regard to the destruction of the Court House property at a meeting held on Wednesday evening. In order to correct that statement allow me to say that not a single table, stand, or any other article of foreither belonging to, or in any wise appertaining to the Court House, was destroyed at said assering. The leg of a table which was displaced, it having been broken some years ago, and tied up with a piece of wire, was the total empunt of damage done to the furniture of the Court House.

So far as the personnel of the meeting, I am informed that it was composed of some of the most prominent lawyers and politicians of all political parties in Alexandria city, with no less than eight members of the bar and notaries, who ly virtue of the offices they held are conservators of the peace. As to the political sigreflerace of the meeting I have nothing to say, not wishing to interfere in the policies of the BENJAMIN AUSTIN,

Clerk of County Court.

The petitioner prays for an investigation of the acts of these officials, and if they are found guilty he prays for reparation of his injuries.

Mr. Eston knew nothing of the truth of the charges named. If they were true, however, the petition should not go to the Sonate, but to the House, as affecting the honer of another department of the Government. He, therefore, moved its reference to the Committee on Fereign Relations for report. As a basis for his remarks, he offered a resolution that it is the day of the government of the U. S. and its civil and military officers to exert all proper and legitimate means to protee; the rights of citizens of the U. S. temperarily being in foreign countries against the arbitrary acls of the authorities thereof.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE OF A BOY .- A boy between 7 and S years of age, the sen of Gen. Wingste, of New York, had a marvellous escape from death one day last week. The family had moved into the sixth story of an apartment house, the elevator in which being unfinished, the well hole was covered over with loose boards. He was locking down the clevator through the cracks, when the board upon which he was standing fell down, and the boy followed it head foremost. The elevater was at the bottom, ninety feet below. As the boy fell he caught at the rope which suspends the ear, and though unable to maintain his hold, it swang him round so that he was able to catch the check rope with the other hand. He clung to this with both hands and slid down, until crossing within reach of a carpenter, who was stracted to the elevator by the falling of the boards, caught him and pulled him io. The boy was not burt, except that his bands were red deued by the repe. He did not cry out, and his mother, who was in the upper story, knew pothing of the courretes until his resourt brought the boy to her. SERMONS TO RAILBOAD MEN.-We find in the Atlanta correspondence of the Augusta Evening News the following item upon this subject: "Col.
